Abstract	The tomb of Sunan Gunung Jati is a tomb that is considered sacred not only by the Javanese but also by the Chinese. As the tomb of one of the scholars of Islamic propagation on the island of Java, this tomb is crowded with pilgrims. This study uses phenomenology research strategy to explain the understanding, experience and meaning of pilgrims of the tomb of Sunan Gunung Jati against the rituals performed in the tomb. This study is based on interviews of pilgrims who come in the tomb complex of Sunan Gunung Jati, Cirebon. The results showed there are four motives pilgrims perform rituals, namely economic motives, social motives, cultural motives, and spiritual motives.
