

Politik Identitas dalam Sejarah Pembentukan Negara Israel

Title	Politik Identitas dalam Sejarah Pembentukan Negara Israel
Author Order	of Accreditation
Abstract	This paper discusses how the political identity becomes a motive of Israel state formation. Identity politics is a part of cultural politics which consisted by race, religion, ethnic and culture. The Author identified identity politics as a concept or political movement which focusing into diversity. The main argument of this paper is Israel has succeed utilize its cultural identity narrative to unite the perception of the Jewish around the world to reproduce as a historical justification as well as the tools of politics for the sake of the embodiment of national ideals in establishing their own nation state. Keywords: Identity Politics, Narrative, Perception, Israel
Publisher Name	Laboratorium Hubungan Internasional, FISIP, Universitas Jenderal Soedirman
Publish Date	2014-10-25
Publish Year	2014
Doi	DOI: 10.20884/1.ins.2014.1.01.431
Citation
Source	Insignia: Journal of International Relations
Source Issue	Vol 1 No 01 (2014): November 2014
Source Page	84-99
Url	http://jos.unsoed.ac.id/index.php/insignia/article/view/431
Author	ELPENI FITRAH, M.A., Ph.D